17 Thornhill Crescent,
London, N.
Dec.r 13. 1867

310

My dear & highly esteemed Friend,

The Rev. George
Porter, the Bearer of this Note, is a good man & true. If he should call upon you,
I am sure you will receive him with cordiality for my sake.

Greatly rejoicing

that I had the honor of having you & yours
even for a few short
hours under my roof, & longing to see you
again — in which my dear wife & sister
heartily unite —

I remain,
My dear & honored Friend
Yours most truly
Ebenezer Davies.

W. Lloyd Garrison Esq.

Hs.A.1.2 v.35, p.1588